

Role description for

IBTPHEM Training sub-committee member

Role title	IBTPHEM Training sub-committee member (Quality/National Training/Educators/Recruitment)
Reports to	Chair of sub-committee and IBTPHEM Training Committee
Time commitment	Commitment to provide a minimum of 2 days a year supporting the activities of the sub-committee, in person or remotely

Role summary

The IBTPHEM Training Committee has created sub-committees to focus on specific areas of PHEM sub-specialty training, utilising and engaging experienced individuals from across the country. The sub-committees are :-

- Quality
- National Training
- Educators
- Recruitment

Each sub-committee will have 4-6 members with a chair appointed by the chair of the Training Committee and usually a PHEM TPD. Each sub-committee has a terms of reference and will develop a workplan approved by the Training Committee, reporting to it at each quarterly meeting.

Main duties and responsibilities

- Be familiar with the PHEM Curriculum and Training Programme
- Attend sub-committee meetings and briefings as directed
- Utilise their expertise and experience to enhance training experience for PHEM trainees
- Comply with the Code of Conduct

Additional post details

The role is voluntary. There is currently no financial remuneration for the role of IBTPHEM Training sub-committees.

Reasonable travel expenses for attending meetings are supported by the IBTPHEM in line with current RCSED expenses policy.

Members are appointed for an initial 3 year period subject to satisfactory performance.

There will be a minimum of 4 meetings per year of which 2 may be virtual. Members must attend a minimum of 2 meetings in each year.

Code of Conduct

The IBTPHEM expects that all members will, at all times, act responsibly and:

- With honesty, integrity, transparency and accountability
- Treat all equally, fairly and with respect, without regard to gender, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, age, religion or other characteristics
- Help to foster a safe, formative and enjoyable environment that values diversity
- Comply with all policies and procedures of the IBTPHEM and the guidance provided by the IBTPHEM Training Committee chair and management team
- Co-operate with other members and recognise and respect their individual contributions
- Avoid any abuse of their position
- Operate within the social media environment according to the code of conduct of their professional registration body
- must be of professional good-standing and must inform IBTPHEM of any loss, or suspension of, his/her professional registration or employment.

Person Specification

IBTPHEM Training Sub-committee members

	Essential	Desirable
Education and qualifications	Registered healthcare practitioner with a CCT in either anaesthetics/acute medicine/emergency medicine/intensive care medicine* Diploma in Immediate Medical Care	Fellow Member of FPHC in good standing. Fellowship in Immediate Medical Care and/or GMC approved PHEM sub-specialty accreditation.
Previous Experience	Five years operational experience in PHEM and/or completion of sub-specialty training Experience as a medical trainer in PHEM training provider (as defined in PHEM curriculum)
Skills, knowledge, ability	Current experience of pre-hospital emergency medicine Current experience of scenario based, simulator based and full immersion simulation	An interest in the particular sub-committee area
Aptitude and personal characteristics	Willingness to comply with code of conduct.	Evidence of further personal development and learning

* Each sub-committee may appoint, at their discretion, an experienced PHEM practitioner from the multiprofessional team. Please indicate this on your application.

Applications for IBTPHEM Training sub-committees can be made at any time of the year. Applications can be made by e-mailing an expression of interest using the attached form together with an up to date curriculum vitae addressed to ibtphem@rcsed.ac.uk with the subject title 'Training sub-committee Application'. Applications will be assessed by the Training Committee and sub-committee chairs, appointed by the IBTPHEM Training Committee, on a continuous basis against the person specification.